LTS-152 | Jarvis Family

Mark Jarvis is a technology entrepreneur and investor, who splits his time between La Jolla, CA and Bozeman, MT. Mark and his family are intrepid adventurers and do a lot of trips all over the west.

From coast and desert trips in Southern California to the Rockies and essentially all of the west, they do tons of short 2-5 day trips and even taken a 2 week trip to BC, Canada.

You will see the license plate is DRD4 7R - this is a gene known as the adventure gene or the restless gene (commonly referred to as the wanderlust gene) – very aptly named!
